CHRISTMAS IN JULY

The morning started off a bit suspect after the heavy rain the night before but cleared to a beautiful day as we climbed up from the coast to Mount Tamborine. When we arrived at Jacques Manor Restaurant there was no need for the winter woollies, particularly as there was a cosy fire warming our function room. In fact, one member said it was starting to get too hot! The organisers had done a wonderful job decorating the tables and the room was set out to provide a convivial atmosphere. After sorting out where we were going to sit we were given glasses of mulled red wine (a beverage not particularly to my liking) and then serenaded in classical music by a musician on an electronic violin with audio backing arrangements. He chose a repertoire that just fitted in with the day and the music continued throughout our luncheon which was much appreciated by all.

Everything was well organised, the meals and sweetmeats excellent and the service very good with meals and drinks delivered promptly. It was great to see such a good roll-up of 44 members and guests but it became harder to hear the music and announcements due to the spirited conversations and clamour slowly building up around the room during the meal. The only way for our Chairman Terry to gain attention was the clinking of a knife on a glass as he welcomed members and guests including President Tony Herald from Brisbane. Tony then spoke and told a story of how he has nudged Ron Gaudion a little in accepting the position of JDCQ Patron while on the way back from the National Rally. He then presented Ron with his Patron's badge to much applause. Terry then gave a vote of thanks to the organisers of the event and all gave their appreciation. Conversations continued well after the lunch and coffee had finished with people moving around the room to chat to friends at different tables, particularly to those members who hadn't been to some of our events recently.

Everybody seemed to enjoy the luncheon with the good food, good friends and a great venue chosen. All in all, it was a very pleasant way to spend a Sunday, and thanks go to Debbie Duncan and Chris Miers for all the effort they put in to organise a great event and make it such a successful day.
