The Mid-Week Run was held on Tuesday 4th June lunch at St. Bernard's Hotel, Mt Tamborine and was arranged by Arthur Kontalis. It was very enjoyable with an open Fire Place which made it very cosy and the food was very delicious.

Sunday Event - This was a great event in two parts; Morning Tea held at Marilyn and John Porter's home and they were assisted by their daughter. We sat outside on their back balcony with beautiful scenery and very relaxing, the food was delicious and so was the company. A great morning was had by all that attended and then onto Glen Hotel, Eight Mile Plains where Lyn and Wes Evers had arranged for our luncheon. This is a very popular hotel and they had great variety of food to choose from. The afternoon was enjoyed by all and the meals were delicious.

We have a very good menu, the ladies' main meal will be at no cost to them but drinks or dessert at their own expense, but sorry gentlemen you have to pay it is the same menu as the ladies and the price is good also the food.
