David also spoke of the lunch at the Bearded Dragon Tavern on Sunday 20th October organised by Arthur Kontalis. Although the people at the venue missed our booking, they arranged tables for the day at short notice. It was very busy and the music was a little loud but everyone enjoyed themselves.

Regalia: Marilyn Porter advised she has one club shirt left (size XXXL) at $25.

General Business:

JDCQ President Jim Reid spoke on a number of issues. Regarding the scam (mentioned above) he advised it is a problem we have had before. If concerned, ring the individual mentioned in the scam if there is any question of the authenticity of the message. For the AGM in November Jim advised most positions are filled but encouraged members to join the committee, particularly as contact between members can be on line via Zoom rather than in person at meetings. The club has saved money with meetings such as the ACJC held interstate using this method. We have had a good year regarding membership. The club now has over 400 members but Jim asked that new members be welcomed by existing members when joining a register. New members should also make the effort to get involved with club activities. Jim also mentioned that the date of the next National Rally hosted by Queensland will change now from 2022 to 2024 to allow the National Rally held by JDC South Australia to coincide with their anniversary.

Special Event Prize: by David Willmott – winners were Debbie Duncan – Chocolates, Mark Turpin - bottle of Red Wine, Junita Kup-Ferroth – Framed Jaguar Poster.

THANK YOU FOR SUPPER: Tom Ross thanked Jane Mikkelsen and her helpers Marilyn Porter, Lloy Bayliss and Lorraine Kennedy. It was a delicious supper with a great variety.

Meeting closed 7.55 pm. Next Meeting and AGM Monday 25th November 2019.

Robin Kup-Ferroth
Acting Secretary
