Resignation

With much regret Tom and Irene Ross tendered their resignation from the positions of Chairman and Secretary respectively in January due to ill health. Tom and Irene were looking forward to continuing in their roles this year and had started early planning for the Chairman's Weekend Away. They are very disappointed at having to make this decision.

We thank Tom and Irene for all the work they have carried out for the club.

At the January meeting Di Cooper accepted the position of Chairperson and Debbie Duncan accepted the position of Secretary and we thank them.
