Past Events:

Two great functions this month – a Brunch at The Anchorage Café, and a High Tea at Royal Pines. Both events were well attended, and the High Tea might even become an annual event! The weather only slightly spoiled the Brunch, with much better weather and spectacular views from the top of Royal Pines! Thanks so much to Tom & Irene Ross for the Brunch, and Diana and Brian Hogan for the High Tea.

Future Events:

Cars and Parts:

1971 XJ6 – full details in May's magazine. Please contact Ron Gaudion to express interest.

Library/PR:

Ray Hodges advised two new books becoming available – All American Hero and Jag E-Types, plus Electric Cars – Q&A Guide. He also had a wide variety of books and magazines on display, and gave us a fascinating trivia quiz on the Land Rover – thanks to Ray for making the effort to come down and impart his immense knowledge.

Editor: Nothing to report.

General Business:

Jim Reid had the floor to update the members. He gave special praise to Neil Summerson and Tony Nelson for their terrific organisation of the Macleans Bridge event. He updated on the Special Meeting that took place to pass the changes to our Constitution, which will now be sent to the Government for approval. JDCQ has decided it now needs to be owned by the Registers, so each Register has nominated a representative to voice the opinions of the Register. Jim and Maureen Reid are retiring from their positions of President and Secretary of JDCQ respectively, and these positions will need to be nominated and appointed from the new arrangement, with any positions taken up made easier, as Zoom meetings will ensure no travel is required.

Lucky Door Prizes:

Three bottles of wine (two Red and 1 Prosecco), kindly donated by David Jones and Joan Gracie. Winners were Lloy Bayliss, Andrew Danks and Diana Hogan (Diana, I really really wanted that Prosecco!!!).

Supper:

Unfortunately, due to Covid-19 restrictions, there was no supper allowed. There being no further business to discuss, the Chairwoman thanked the Members for their attendance, and separately thanked both Jim Reid and Ray Hodges for their time and effort in being there, and closed the meeting at 7.57pm.
