RACQ Motorfest Sunday 19th June

This year Jaguar is the featured marque at the RACQ Motorfest because it is 100 years since William Lyons and William Walmsley formed a partnership to manufacture Swallow Sidecars. Walmsley was bought out by Lyons in 1934 and the SS name was dropped prior to WW2 for obvious reasons and became JAGUAR.

It would be great to have 100 (or more) Jaguars on display, and a dedicated covered area has been allocated by RACQ just for Jaguars. This is the second year at the Brisbane Showgrounds and is a huge improvement on the venue used previously. RACQ will have a promotion in a forthcoming issue of the Road Ahead featuring a JDCQ member's car which will be on the commemorative badge available for purchase on the day.

The article can be viewed at –

<https://www.racq.com.au/articles/drive/2022/4/badge-of-honour-for-classic-british-car-maker>

Registration is FREE for display vehicles. Badges will be on sale for $20 at the venue.

What do you need to do NOW?

1. Register your intention to attend at the RACQ Motorfest website:–
<https://www.racq.com.au/about-us/community/sponsorships/racq-motorfest/display-a-vehicle>
2. Advise the JDCQ coordinator, Lloyd Andersen, Brisbane Register Chairman, that you have registered and which vehicle you will be taking. lloyd1jaglover@iprimus.com.au or phone 3294 8960.

Note: REGISTRATIONS CLOSE FRIDAY 13TH MAY.

(b) The breakfast at "Greendays" hosted by Diane and Brian Hogan was all good, save for the loss of power in the area.

(c) Breakfast at the "River Mill" hosted by Ray Howlett went well with nice food, though some cancellations prior to the day resulting in reduced numbers. Raffle went well with local produce as prizes.

(d) Breakfast held by the E & F Type Register at the cafe at Beechmont which went well. Location provided terrific views over the valley.

Library.

Tom Ross reports: note the list of DVDs available for hire in the last Torque magazine.

Editor.

Robin Kup-Ferroth spoke about the magazine including that some editions had not be placed upon the State Website. The Webmaster is being contacted. The discussion expanded in the meeting to the status of the State magazine – Queensland Jaguar Driver, its exorbitant cost, the issues between making it more affordable as well as some of the advertising inconsistencies versus it remaining as is as a prestige publication. The magazine has grown over the years and expanded to its present costs of an estimated $8K per monthly issue.

General Business.

The Chair Di Cooper advised on her new position as State President and of several communications with other Registers including ongoing meetings and co-operation.

Events to be held:

- (a) McLean Bridge at Belmont on 22 May;
- (b) Motorama RACQ in June at the RNA Show Grounds in Brisbane. Jaguar 100th anniversary to be celebrated and hoping for 100 Jaguars with display cost free.
- (c) All British Day in September – date yet to be advised.

Short discussion whether the Chairman's Weekend should be proceeded with this year in August, and to go with the Glen Innes proposal as it is already calculated and planned subject to re-quoting.

Tom Ross raised the question if Jaguar Australia are going to celebrate the Jaguar marque's 100th anniversary since 1922 which is this very year.

Lucky Door Prize.

Chris Meyers orchestrated the drawing of the "Easter" prizes, to wit:

- 1.. Chris Orton;
- 2.. Ray Howlett, in absentia;
- 3.. Junita Kup-Ferroth.
