Past Events:

Well, I'll be dammed – a lovely BYO morning tea and picnic lunch to Wyralong and Maroon. Thanks, David, as always for putting this event together! One further event this month, to celebrate and thank the ladies for their hard work behind the scenes. It was actually a fabulous day out for all members – the ladies attended a fantastic morning tea, held at the View Café, Hinze Dam, and sponsored by JDCQ as acknowledgement of their efforts in our Register. An excellent array and way too much food (what's new?) was enjoyed by those who arrived on a beautifully sunny day. A wonderful morning, and grateful thanks to Di Cooper for arranging this thank-you. The men did not miss out! Andrew Danks put on a fabulous workshop tour of his factory, and members who attended were dressed accordingly to view the workshop in safety. Exhausted but happy members at the end of a memorable day. Thanks, too, to Andrew for hosting a wonderful event and giving so generously of his time.

Future Events:

"Mid-Week Lunch" (3 May '23) – A BYO Morning Tea and lunch at Flutterbies Cottage Café, Tyalgum.

Details in April magazine.

Cars and Parts:

Please refer to email to all members of 27 April, regarding the late Ian Richardson's classic Series 1, 3.8 E-Type, which hopefully has now been sold at Lloyds Auctions. Check with Tom Ross for updated details.

Library/PR:

Max Hoffman's "Million Dollar Middleman" is still available for hire, but only until the May meeting. A really worthwhile read, so contact Tom Ross to borrow this book.

Editor:

Nothing to report, except a thank you to Debbie Duncan for her article on the Yamba trip. (Shucks, I'm blushing!)

General Business:

Brian Hogan showed off his "Jaguar" heater hose, which cost $135 to fix. I've told you before, folks, Mazdas are great cars!!!

Lucky Door Prizes:

Two packs of wine and chocolate, and one pack of wine and Anzac Biscuits. Winners were Ron Gaudion, Tom Ross, and (wait for it) Ron Gaudion! Unbelievably, no comments from me – too speechless!! Huge thanks to the Andersons and Danks for the wine, Diana for the Anzac Biscuits, and Coles for the chocolates!!!

Supper:

Once more, a great effort from Diana for organising the supper this month, with amazingly mouth-watering additions from Lloy and Helen. Ripper sandwiches and diet-conscious cakes (haha). Huge thanks to you all for your amazing generosity.

Meeting closed at 7.59 pm
