Balance for the business a/c is $859.59 (Shhh...Debbie has been Christmas shopping) and the bonus a/c is $4,269.29 totalling $5,128.88. A fabulous amount of $360 was made from raffle tickets at the Spring Affair Raffle – well done to Marilyn!!

Past Events.

Brian & Diana Hogan's mid-week run to the HarbourVue Tavern, Coomera: Quiet run, good food, fun had by all. Thanks to the Hogans for organising this event!

All British Day: Great day of food and sociability, with a good display of Jaguars, and a hilarious drive home for Di who followed the Mikkelsen's D-Type on the Freeway, with admiring looks from all the drivers around!

The Spring Affair: our annual event, with lunch this year at the Old Church Restaurant, Mt. Tamborine. A great gathering of 45, with a lovely range of cars on display, and a very enjoyable meal with extremely attentive staff. Di won the 1st prize of a meal voucher, and there were other great prizes. Excellent work from Chris, Marilyn and Faye.

Cars & Parts.

If anyone knows anything about the history of a Replica Aluminium-made D-Type, please advise Di Cooper or Gary Mikkelsen.

Library.

Nothing to report.

Editor.

Nothing to report, except that fewer members means, more money in the Bank (the only positive)!

General Business.

Debbie was asked to send a thank-you note to the Old Church Restaurant for a great Spring Affair.

A mention that Ron Gaudion remains at Pindara Hospital, and would be very pleased to see visitors. Men, take spirits!

Brian Hogan wafted on (or so I thought) about cross-over pipes splitting, replacing them with aluminium as the best option, on the XF V8 and 3-litre versions. Sorry, Brian!

Di Cooper advised she has parts for the X Type, and also wooden panelling for the XJ8, which she will pass to Paul Wallis in case any members are interested in taking them.

Special Event.

Winners this evening:

1. Mary-Anne Anderson: Bubbles and Maltesers
2. David Jones: Red Wine and Chocolates
3. Gary Mikkelsen: White Wine and Nuts

Thanks to Diana, Lloy and Mary-Anne for tonight's supper.

Meeting closed at 8.06pm.

Secretary
