Past Events.

Brian Hogan reports:

(a) That the mid-week mini-golf organised by Debbie Duncan was a success with Junita, Diana and Chris hitting holes-in-one.

(b) The Chairperson's Weekend to Gatton included some unusual routes but arriving for successful happy hour(s), all enjoyed and very well attended. Dinner 2 nights. Visits to (Motor Museum), Scotty's Garage & Barn, the Awassa Sheep Farm which included the consumption of sheep milk ice-cream which was very nice, the patting of a lamb, a wonderful weekend.

A gift was presented to Chairperson Di Cooper for her efforts generally. She also commented on the history of the sheep (originally bred from the Middle East).

Cars & Parts.

Nothing to report.

Library.

Nothing to report.

Editor.

Robin Kup-Ferroth reports: nothing to report.

General Business.

Di Cooper reports:

(i) Mentioned Joan and Len Henderson with Joan passing away recently – a very sad loss to Queensland.

(ii) A recent meeting of the Brisbane Register was well attended but that the committee is mostly acting in the role with many unlikely to stand for those positions, putting the Register in doubt. If it folds members will have to be absorbed by other registers, noting that Brisbane has the largest number of members.

(iii) Further, regarding the State organisation, if that has difficulties raising a committee, it could fold with long held assets lost to other “like-minded” clubs (not being Jaguar clubs).

(iv) David and Ruth on currently on their West Australian journey and have provided details of their doings including David’s testing of pies and vanilla slices in various places.

Special Event.

Prizes donated by (late) Joan Gracie, Mary-Ann and Neil Anderson, won by:

1.. Jane Mikkelsen: sparkling wine + chocolates;

2.. Roy Bayliss: shiraz + Roses chocolates;

3.. Mary-Anne Anderson: shiraz + fudge;

4.. David Jones: shiraz.

Thanks to Diana, Lloy and Mary-Anne for tonight’s supper.

Meeting closed at 8.18pm.
