Library: Gary Mikkelsen reports: Nil.

Past Events:

Dorothy:

(1..) The lunch at Beaudesert organised by Arthur went well, a lot of cars on the way in, but parking was good at the RSL. Food was good on a nice day (16 attended).

Julie:

(2..) The "Spring Affair" was held at the Hampton Winery Estate, 31 guests on a beautiful spring day. Elusive raffles (hand written) and lucky door prizes. Thanks to Cheryl & Andrew for donations and to Chris for the lemon curd. A great success.

David:

(3..) The "All British Day" was held with 20 occupying an area under their favourite tree, Dorothy providing rolls, there was champagne, lots of British cars and with a gently breeze enjoyed by all.

Di (added):

There were 68 Jags out of 605 vehicles altogether. Lots there and a contest with Tony Herald triumphant over his E Type awarded car of the day unlike last year when there was none.

Future Events.

Chris:

(1..) The Ladies Morning Tea/Brunch at the Spit Seaway (Kiosk) on 1 October 11.00 for 11.30 including crab sandwiches, tea and coffee.

John & Brian:

(1B..) The Ladies event is in appreciation of their effort over the year with thanks. The Men will be making their own at the Southport Yacht Club, 11.30 for 12.00 noon.

Glenn:

(2..) Lunch at the Albert River Winery on Sunday 19 October is 11.30 for 1200 noon. Meeting there with 2-course alternate drop available for $49 payable on the day (or from the menu).

Some discussion of meeting earlier at Arthur Earle Park at 10 am for 10.30 departure in convoy (not confirmed).

General Business:

There is a person seeking to repurchase an E-type which he sold two years ago and has now returned from overseas. Silver blue with after-market sunroof.

Forms will be circulated for positions at the upcoming AGM in November. Need a new Committee, and Secretary as Jane Mikkelsen will not be stand. John Porter prefers not to stand as Chairman.

Di:

(1..) The 50th Anniversary celebration of the Jaguar Club Book will be distributed and provided for free. Other regalia is available including popular windscreen shades and so far, good takings.

(2..) She will not be standing as President (of the State Committee), maybe Terry Whitehouse will, as someone suitable is needed. She “copped a lot of shit this year”. There will be meetings on zoom with the Gold Coast needing representation otherwise the Registry will be excluded. Glenn Anderson has offered to do so (well done). Wendy Gross will definitely not be standing again as Secretary. She does the work of two and more likely five people.

(3..) All register membership is down in numbers with Brisbane the worst.

There followed a significant discussion by members including Glenn, Paul, Brian, Gary, Robin, Debbie, Ian and others, as to why including:

Jaguar cars sold by owners for other marques, age and demographics, fixed income pressures make it tough for people, in Brisbane no one wants to do a tour (takes forever to get out of the suburbs – unlike GC). Victoria has good numbers and good tours (a de-centralised state?) including one tour which included 150 XJSs.

Thoughts for improvement include circulation of JDCQ pamphlets, display dates, sausage sizzle, etc. John:

(4..) For sale, an Aston Martin, 10 years old, 1 owner, 179 kms, 1 of 150 made close to F1 specifications for $2-3m, enquire with Daniel Joseph Riccardo.

(5..) Chinese built hybrids suggesting 135-170-180klms on electric and then 1000klms on petrol with 5-10 year warranty. Interesting but the quality and finish are suspect.

Raffles.

Thanks to those who donated prizes and the winners drawn by David:

- (a..) Chris M wine
- (b..) David W chocolates
- (c..) Margaret A – asked for a re-draw
- (d..) Roger wine
- (e..) Neville wine

Closure.

Meeting closed at 7.59pm (30 attended in total) followed by a distribution of the Anniversary Books.
