Past Events:

Brian said that the Redland Bay Hotel run was a good day had by all. However red lights delayed the flow a little and John almost got caught by a police radar trap. Food was very nice. Ray interjected that he couldn't get a good photo of a bird – flying kind, I gather, but will do so next year. May 17 - Cheryl & Andrew's run to the Camel Farm at Harrisville was deemed 'fantastic' and we were lucky there was no rain. Food was good including Camel meat burgers. Ray added 'coffee was awful' if made with Camel milk. Several confirmed one of the Camels was pregnant.

Future Events.

Rob, in Arthur's absence, reminded members of the lunch on 6th June at St. Bernards Hotel on Mt. Tamborine. Meet at 11am for 11.30am. Please phone Arthur if attending. Mary-Anne reminded all of a Look and Talk Cars and coffee & morning tea at her & Neils home on Wed. 17th June. An attendance board went around during the evening. Many are excited to attend and it was noted that there is an internal lift in the house, so no one misses out. On Wednesday 1st July, Rob & Junita are the organizers of lunch at Tallai Golf Club. We will have our meal on the club's verandah overlooking the golf course or inside if raining.

General Business:

Ray reminded members that places for the Christmas in July/40th anniversary lunch were filling fast and of course payment needs to be received. Glenn said that this event was not shown on the Brisbane Web page at this time. Glenn spoke on his and Margaret's meeting at the Imperial Hotel, Main Beach where this year's Spring Affair on 13th Sept will be held. Those at the Hotel are very enthusiastic to be hosting us. Eight car spaces will be made available in front of the hotel and Paul will make the choice of which cars will fill these spaces. Under the building the carpark will have 30 spaces cordoned off for club cars. At this time the pricing is $109.00 pp for a 3-course lunch in the room overlooking the pool. Guests will buy their own drinks, and a coffee station will be available. This room is complementary to our club for the lunch and very elegant with a grand piano. If any members choose to have a B & B stayover, there will be a code on the Jaguar web site offering a 15% discount. Glenn reiterated that all prices were well negotiated and that Hilton Hotels will be taking over the Imperial, so prices may not remain at such a generous rate. Fay spoke about the menu options and best choices chosen. Dorothy made a brief comment that the menu being offered may not reflect the cost. This remains to be seen but certainly sounds as though Fay has chosen well. Thanks to all involved in this event. Ray suggested that the Register should subsidise this event. A show of hands agreed. A final price to be paid will be shown.

Ray reminded all that he is unable to organise the Chairmans weekend away. Yamba was mentioned as a destination, and Brian was looking into having a chat about it with David Raffles.
