Our resident Tour Guide, David Willmott, recalled two more delightful events!! The first was the mid-week Extravaganza to Tweed Heads Golf Club. A great drive down, culminating in a Chinese Buffet lunch enjoyed whilst overlooking lovely views on the River. Thanks to the Coopers for this lovely and restful Wednesday jaunt. The second was, did I mention this before, a fantastic weekend to Bellingen, organised by our Chairman and his Better Half! How nice of you to let us spend all your money on fabulous meals, great shopping, and great camaraderie. Not enough to eat, however it was truly special. We were very sad to see the end of this event, and we sincerely thank both Ray and Gwen for all the hard work they put in to make this weekend so divine. Oops, I nearly forgot – Chris and Joan won the Trivia!!!

VALE RICHARD CRAWSHAY

Just prior to going to print I was informed of the passing of our new member Richard Crawshay on 15th September. Richard and his partner Terri only joined our club recently, but I knew Richard for years when I was a member of the JDCA in NSW where he was very active in all facets of that club as well as the ACJC. He was a real character and when I first joined in NSW made Junita and I very welcome. Other members of our club knew him better than I and will agree it is a sad loss to the Jaguar drivers club community.
